or professional permit)

- Proof of basic knowledge of the German legal and social system (for example, certificate of successful participation in an orientation course and successful completion of an orientation test). Please note : This proof can be waived if there is an illness or disability that prevents the acquisition of the knowledge. This must be proven in a suitable form (e.g. by a specialist medical opinion, proof of reasons which make the acquisition of knowledge impossible or unreasonable in the long term).
- Proof of sufficient living space (rental or purchase contract providing information on living space).

The documents and information must generally be submitted in German.

In individual cases, the Aliens' Registration Office may require fewer or additional documents.

Voraussetzungen

- You possess a valid EU Blue Card (residence title).
- Within the scope of the issued EU Blue Card, you have been employed in a job corresponding to your qualifications and have received a salary that corresponds to the applicable minimum annual gross salary (this amounts to 56,400.00 euros in 2022, for example; for so-called shortage occupations, the limit in 2022 is 43,992.00 euros).
- You would like to continue your work in a job corresponding to your qualifications with the corresponding minimum salary.
- You can secure a living for yourself and your family without claiming public benefits.
- You have adequate health insurance coverage.
- You have a permanent employment permit.
- If you are working in a regulated profession, you must hold the required professional license (for example, approbation or professional permit).
- If you wish to obtain a settlement permit after 21 months: You have been in possession of the EU Blue Card for a period of 21 months and can provide evidence of employment subject to compulsory insurance for this period. You have sufficient knowledge of the German language at level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

- If you wish to obtain a settlement permit after 33 months: You have been in possession of the EU Blue Card for a period of 33 months and can provide evidence of employment subject to compulsory insurance for this period. You have a basic knowledge of the German language at level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.
- You have basic knowledge of the German legal and social system. Please note : Orientation courses offered by the BAMF provide this knowledge.
- You have sufficient living space for yourself and your household members.
- You have no previous criminal record.
- There is no interest in deportation against you.

Kosten

Fee: 113,00 Euro

Remark:

The time as well as the form of the fee collection as well as the payment vary depending on the authority.

For the issuance of the settlement permit in the form of the electronic residence permit (eAT card), which can also be used as electronic proof of identity, additional fees may apply.

Verfahrensablauf

- The settlement permit must be applied for before the validity of your current EU Blue Card expires.
- Find out whether your foreigners authority allows you to apply online or has a special application form available.
- If the application can only be submitted in person, arrange an appointment with your local immigration office. In the case of online application, the Aliens' Registration Office will contact you after receiving your application to schedule an appointment.
- During the appointment at the Aliens' Registration Office, your identity and supporting documents will be verified (please bring your documents, originals if possible, to the appointment).
- If your application is granted, the Foreigners' Registration Office will arrange for the production of the settlement permit by the Federal Printing Office (in possession of a settlement permit and an EU Blue Card is possible.

- The procedure is usually conducted in German.
- Please make sure that your information is correct and complete to the best of your knowledge. This is the only way the Aliens Department can process your request without major delays.
- Incorrect or incomplete information can slow down the procedure and be disadvantageous for you. In a serious case, incorrect or incomplete information that is not completed or corrected in time vis-à-vis the Aliens' Registration Office may result in the revocation of residence rights already granted, a fine, a prison sentence of up to three years or expulsion from the Federal territory.

Rechtsbehelf

- Appeal against the decision of the Foreigners' Registration Office
- Action before the court specified in the notice of appeal if the appeal is not granted
