attorney of the absent parent is required; if only one parent is entitled to custody, the signature of this parent is sufficient.

The documents and information must always be submitted in German. In individual cases, the Aliens' Registration Office may require less or further proof.

Voraussetzungen

- You have the nationality of a state outside the EU or the EEA.
 - The person you are joining has German citizenship and usually resides in Germany.
 - You belong to the group of other family members of a German, i.e. you are neither his spouse nor a minor unmarried child. Other family members include, for example, adult unmarried children, siblings, parents, parents-in-law, grandparents, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, foster children. Fathers of natural German children who are not married to the mother are also eligible.
 - There is a special case of hardship, for example, because your German family member is dependent on your help due to illness, disability or need for care.

Please note : Unfavorable conditions in your home country do not constitute a case of hardship.

- Your subsequent immigration serves the purpose of establishing family cohabitation with the German (for example, sharing an apartment). In the case of a spatial separation only due to work and education or a support or care community due to accommodation in a care facility, a family life community can also be affirmed if you maintain regular contact with the German, which goes beyond a mere visit.
- You can secure your livelihood and health insurance coverage for the duration of your stay without claiming public benefits.
- There is no interest in deportation against you.
- Your stay does not endanger or impair the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany.

Kurztext

- Residence permit for family reasons Issuance for other family reunification with a German.
 - Family members of Germans who can obtain a residence permit for "other family reunification" include all third-country family members who are not spouses or minor unmarried children (for example, adult unmarried children, siblings, parents, parents-in-law, grandparents, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, foster children). Fathers of natural German children who are not married to the mother are also eligible.
 - The stay in Germany must serve the purpose of establishing and maintaining the family community (e.g. shared apartment). A spatial separation only due to professional and educational reasons or a support or care community due to accommodation in a care facility is also permissible.
 - The granting of the residence permit must serve to avoid exceptional hardship (for example, special care needs that can only be provided in Germany). Unfavorable educational, economic, social and other circumstances in the home country, for example, do not constitute a case of hardship.
 - The living expenses (including health insurance) must be covered from own means for the duration of the stay. The livelihood can also be provided by third parties.
 - If the applicant has not yet reached the age of 18, the legal guardians must agree to the stay in Germany.
 - The residence permit is usually issued for at least one year.
 - Responsible: the foreigners authority responsible for the applicant's place of residence.
