Sachverhalt

The documents and information must always be presented in German. In individual cases, the Aliens' Registration Office may require less or further proof.

If necessary, you will have to provide the Aliens' Registration Office with further proof of the continuity of your marriage or civil partnership (e.g. marriage certificate).

Voraussetzungen

In principle, the same requirements must be met for the extension of the residence permit as for the initial issuance of the residence permit. That is:

- The period of validity of your current residence permit will expire in the near future.
 - You would like to continue your stay with your German spouse or life partner in Germany.
 - Your marriage or civil partnership with the German national continues.
- Please note : The marriage no longer exists if it has been divorced, annulled or declared invalid by an unappealable decision of a competent body.
- Your German spouse or partner continues to have his or her habitual residence in Germany (i.e. his or her center of life is not only temporarily in Germany).
 - You continue to live with your spouse or partner in a family partnership (e.g. shared apartment). If you do not live together in a common apartment, the assumption of a family life partnership can be considered if you maintain regular contact with each other that goes beyond mere visits.
 - You can communicate at least in a simple way in German (level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). This can be waived if there are no German courses offered in your country of origin, if they are too expensive or if you cannot attend them for other reasons.
- Please note : under certain circumstances, the Aliens' Registration Office may require you to attend an integration course. This will then be noted on your residence permit.
- There is no interest in deportation against you.

Office should be correct and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief, so that the request can be processed without major delays.

- Incorrect or incomplete information can slow down the procedure and be disadvantageous for the person concerned. In a serious case, incorrect or incomplete information that is not completed or corrected in time vis-à-vis the Aliens Department may result in the revocation of residence rights already granted, a fine, a prison sentence of up to three years, or expulsion from the Federal territory.

- Due to the complexity of the right of residence, this description is for information purposes only and is not legally binding.

Rechtsbehelf

- Appeal against the decision of the foreigners authority within one month of notification
- Action before the court named in the notice of appeal if the appeal is not granted

Kurztext

- Residence permit for family reasons Extension for family reunification of a foreign spouse with a German spouse
- For the extension of the residence permit, basically the same requirements have to be fulfilled as for the initial issuance of the residence permit.
- The validly concluded marriage/life partnership of the third-country national with the German national continues to exist.
- The German national continues to have his habitual residence in Germany (i.e. the center of life is not only temporarily in Germany).
- The spouses continue to live together in mutual responsibility for each other (for example, they share an apartment or have regular contact that goes beyond mere visits).
- German language skills on level A1 have been proven.
- If the obligation to attend an integration course was stated when the residence permit was issued, proof must be provided that the obligation has been fulfilled. If the integration course has not yet been completed, the Foreigners' Registration Office can refuse to extend the residence permit or can only extend it for one year until the course has been successfully completed or
