Teaser	Are you no longer able to control your use of drugs, alcohol, gambling or social media? Then addiction counseling centers can help you and your loved ones anonymously and free of charge, either on site or online.
Volltext	If you are suffering from addiction, you can contact an addiction counseling center. Regardless of the type of addiction problem you have, addiction counseling centers offer you and your family help and support. For example, if your addiction is affecting your employment. Addiction counseling is also available to advise you if someone close to you is addicted. Would you like to take advantage of addiction counseling? • Then you can either go directly to the local addiction counseling center where you live or • visit an online counseling platform for addiction issues. There you will find professional addiction counselors who can support you or your loved ones with any questions you may have about dealing with addictive substances, psychoactive substances, gambling or digital media. Addiction counseling is free and anonymous.
