Teaser	If you lodge a complaint about the Medical Service with the competent supervisory authority, it will investigate the conduct of the service as part of its legal supervision for potential legal violations and work towards rectifying them.
Volltext	You can use this complaint to have potential legal violations on the part of the Medical Service investigated by the competent supervisory authority. The supervisory authority is legally authorized to request all necessary documents from the service and to check for legal violations. If a violation of the law is found, the Medical Service must rectify it.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	None. However, a written description of the facts is useful.
