Teaser	If you have acquired a service driver's license as part of your work for the police, armed forces or federal police, you can have this converted into a general driver's license.
Volltext	If you work for the German Armed Forces, Federal Police or Police, you can obtain a service driver's license as part of your job. This service driver's license entitles you to drive certain service vehicles as long as you are on duty. If you would also like to drive a vehicle privately, you will need a general driving license. You can have your official driving license converted into a general driving license at the local driving license authority. Renewed tests are not necessary for the transfer. These include, for example • General aptitude and eyesight tests • First aid training • Driving test
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• identity card or passport • current biometric passport photo • service driver's license • If applicable, existing general driving license, if this is to be extended by additional classes through the transfer
Voraussetzungen	• You have a valid service driver's license or a certificate of an issued service driver's license.
