other bodies responsible for vocational training. The office responsible for your region will inform you about examination possibilities in your region. If the further training examination is not held at your location, you will find out where you can turn to as an alternative.

The further training examination is taken and assessed by an examination board which works on a voluntary basis.

Continuing education examinations consist of several examinations, which you must take on different examination dates as a written knowledge examination and as a practical or oral examination.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Certified copy of the professional qualification
- Tabular list of your professional career
- Official photo ID for identification at the examination
- If applicable, confirmation by the employer of the activities typical for the sector and the duration of these activities

Voraussetzungen

- The admission requirements differ in each case according to the desired further training qualification and are listed in the corresponding ordinance
- As a rule, a professionally suitable vocational training is necessary.
- Depending on the desired qualification, a certain amount of professional experience may have to be proven.

Kosten

Further training examinations are subject to a fee. The examination fee is based on the respective fee schedules of the regionally responsible body.

Verfahrensablauf

Before you decide to take a further training examination, you should seek advice from the competent body on the examination admission requirements and, if necessary, take advantage of preparatory training courses.

- In order to be admitted, you submit an application for admission to the examination to the competent body.
- After successful admission to the advanced training examination, you will receive an invitation to all parts of the examination (written and practical or oral). The written and oral/practical examinations usually take place on different days.

- At the examination venue, you must prove your identity and register for the examination as an authorised candidate.
- You will normally be informed of the provisional results of the written examination before taking your final oral or practical examination.
- If you have participated in all parts of the examination, you will usually receive immediate notification as to whether you have passed the examination.

After your overall result has been determined by the examination board, it will be forwarded to the competent body. Your examination certificate will then be issued and sent to you.

Bearbeitungsdauer

The entire procedure for the advanced training examination including registration, admission, invitation, execution of all parts of the examination, determination of results and issuing/sending of the examination certificate takes approx. six to twelve months and depends on the desired advanced training examination and the examination performances specified therein.

Frist

The registration deadline for the final examination is approximately one to three months before the first examination date. You can find out the exact registration deadline from the office responsible for your region.
