- library holdings,
- professional competence,
- research,
- emergency preparedness or
- public relations work.
- Your measure can be used to secure objects in archives and libraries,
 - which are unique and
 - which are associated with the scientific, cultural or historical significance of the holdings.

You will not receive funding for

- Projects that you have already started or completed.
- Projects that you are unable to finance with a substantial contribution of your own or with third-party funding.
- Projects for the conservation of graphic artworks, paintings and other works of fine art.

The decision to fund your project will be based on one of the following criteria:

- Exemplary nature
- Public impact
- innovation

Eligible costs are

- all costs incurred in the implementation of the project,
- expenditure for external services,
- ancillary costs such as
 - expenses for working materials and consumables
- or
- public relations work that can be directly allocated to the project.

Modul

Sachverhalt

Costs that are not eligible for funding are

- Expenditure on permanent staff and project-related personnel,
- investments,
- expenditure for permanent exhibitions or measures to be carried out regularly,
- expenditure for necessary structural and technical measures,
- the procurement of work equipment or
- expenditure for measures to maintain the operational functionality of your institution, such as magazine cleaning.

After approval, you can request funding for the costs incurred from the CEC in accordance with the details in the grant notification. The funds will then be paid out to you during the project period so that the costs incurred can be paid directly from the funding.

You submit your funding application to the CEC.

You are not entitled to funding approval.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

You must submit the following with your application

- qualified cost estimate
- Commitments or confirmations of the provision of third-party funds (if applicable)

You must submit the following for acceptance of the grant notification:

- Confirmation of receipt and waiver of appeal form

To request the funding, you must submit

- Proof of use and project report to monitor success, including numerical evidence

Voraussetzungen

Applications may be submitted by

- legal entities under public or private law based in Germany,
- who keep written cultural property and
- whose holdings are accessible to the public.

These include

- Archives, libraries, museums, universities or comparable institutions (also sponsored by a religious community, an association or a foundation)

Further requirements:

- Your project is innovative, exemplary or has an impact on the public.
- You have not yet started the project.
- Your project is financed to a substantial extent from your organization's own budget funds or from other third-party funding.
- Your project content can be assigned to one of the following categories:
 - Archive holdings
 - Library holdings
 - Professional expertise
 - research
 - Emergency preparedness
 - Public relations

Modul

Sachverhalt

Further requirements for projects for the restoration or conservation of written cultural heritage:

- You want to restore or conserve historically or scientifically significant writings. These include:
 - Objects or groups of objects of high cultural-historical value,
 - Objects or groups of objects of supra-regional importance,
 - Objects or groups of objects with high utilization and high multi-perspective or comparative evaluation potential,
 - valuable unique works and rare items with intrinsic value, and
 - Objects or groups of objects that are indispensable for safeguarding teaching, research and administration in the long term.

- These are originals or, in the case of multiple transmissions, you can provide evidence of coordination with other depositories in order to avoid multiple treatments.
- You can ensure that the objects are appropriately housed and secured in the long term after the measure.

Kosten

There are no fees.
