Verfahrensablauf

Seek advice from the relevant state monument authorities about funding opportunities and requirements.

- Go to the Federal Government's website and download the application form.
 - 8 copies for initial applications
 - 2 copies for subsequent applications
 - If your project comprises several construction phases, you must submit a follow-up application for each additional construction phase.
- Notes:
 - You fill in the application for your project electronically, print it out and sign it.
 - A written statement from the State Conservator is required. You can apply for this via the respective State Monuments Office. The statement must confirm that the cultural monument is of national importance and that the planned conservation measures are supported.
 - You send the signed application together with the other required documents by post to the Federal Office of Administration (BVA).
 - The Federal Government Commissioner for Culture and the Media (BKM) decides on the entire program annually. In doing so, it takes into account the opinion of the state curator.
 - External experts are also consulted on initial applications.
 - You will then receive notification by post from the Federal Office of Administration (BVA) as to whether your application for funding has been approved.
 - Once you have completed your project, you must prove to the Federal Office of Administration (BVA) that you have spent the funding on your project.

Bearbeitungsdauer

- at least 6 months

Frist

- by October 31 for the following year • before the start of the measure • Application: • Proof of use of funds: deadline (usually 6 or 12 months) depends on the legal status of the applicant
