Teaser	If you invest in the modernisation or improvement of cinemas or in new cinema buildings, you can apply for a subsidy under certain conditions.
Volltext	The German Federal Film Board (FFA) supports cinema operators and their cinemas in Germany with its funding. This is funding in accordance with the project principle, which serves to maintain or improve structures. In addition, measures to create accessibility in the cinemas as well as digital equipment for audio description and/or subtitles are funded. Furthermore, subsidies can be applied for to provide business management advice to cinemas, for media education support for children and young people, and for the regular screening of short films as supporting films in cinemas or original short film programmes. Funding can be applied for from the German Federal Film Board (FFA) for the following measures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For the modernisation and improvement of cinemas as well as new cinema buildings, provided they serve to improve structures, you can receive funding of up to EUR 200,000, in exceptional cases up to EUR 350,000. The subsidy amounts to a maximum of 50 percent of the total eligible costs. You will receive up to 30 percent of this funding as a non-repayable grant and 70 percent as an interest-free loan. The term of the loan depends on the loan amount. The maximum term is 10 years. • For the creation of barrier-free accessibility in cinemas, you can receive funding of up to 50 percent of the total eligible costs as a grant. Funding for the creation of accessibility can exceed the maximum funding amount. • You can receive subsidies of up to EUR 200,000 for measures of contractually agreed cooperation between cinemas, for exceptional or exemplary advertising or marketing measures, as well as for other
