Teaser	If you as a company or exchange organization would like to offer foreign students or university graduates an internship in Germany, you must obtain confirmation from the Federal Employment Agency in advance under certain conditions.
Volltext	Students or university graduates who are citizens of an EU country, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein or Switzerland do not require confirmation from the Federal Employment Agency, regardless of the duration of the internship. This also applies to EU-funded programs such as LEONARDO, SOKRATES, TACIS or ERASMUS for nationals of other countries. For students with other nationalities who do not participate in EU-funded programs, the following regulations apply: You need a confirmation from the Federal Employment Agency if you offer foreign students or university graduates an internship in your company. If you wish to employ several students or graduates at the same time as part of an internship, you must submit a separate application for each intern. A study-related internship may last a maximum of 12 months. The internship can also be carried out in several parts if this was planned from the outset in order to achieve the training objective. However, in this case you must submit a new application for each new internship.
