Teaser	If, as a foreign company, you wish to send foreign workers to Germany for a short period of time for assembly and disassembly work within the framework of contracts for work and materials, you must notify the Federal Employment Agency in advance under certain conditions.
Volltext	You have developed or manufactured machines, systems or IT programs abroad and sold them to Germany and would like to have them installed or maintained by your employees in Germany - or have your employees instruct the buyers in their use. Or you would like to have used equipment that you have purchased in Germany dismantled by employees abroad and reassembled abroad. In both cases, your employees will generally need a residence permit for the Federal Republic of Germany. As a foreign company, you need to notify the Federal Employment Agency of the posting of the workers before employment begins and apply for a residence permit for your employees at the German diplomatic mission abroad.
