Sachverhalt

- Compulsory contributions for employment or self-employment,
- Contributions for mini-jobs that were paid together with the employer. Contributions for mini-jobs paid by the employer alone are only taken into account on a pro rata basis,
- Compulsory contributions and periods taken into account for bringing up a child up to the 10th birthday,
- periods of non-gainful care, compulsory military and civilian service,
- compulsory contributions or credited periods due to the receipt of social benefits (e.g. sickness benefit). Social benefits from the employment agency in the last 2 years before the start of the pension are only taken into account if you received the benefit due to insolvency or complete closure of the employer's business.
- Substitute periods: for example, months of political persecution in the GDR
- Voluntary contributions are only counted if you have at least 18 years of compulsory contributions.

Kosten
