Teaser	The Künstlersozialkasse will advise you on all matters relating to artists' social insurance.
Volltext	As a self-employed artist or journalist, you may have to take out insurance through the Künstlersozialkasse (KSK). If necessary, you can contact the KSK. The KSK • informs you about the insurance in the statutory health, nursing care and pension insurance, • informs you about your rights and obligations in connection with insurance and • advises you on registration. In addition, the KSK will advise you on request on the following topics, among others: • Is the artists' social insurance a compulsory insurance? • How can you insure yourself through the KSK? • What requirements do you have to meet? • Are you a self-employed artist or journalist? • How high are the contributions and costs? • What benefits does the KSK provide? • What are the advantages of the KSK? • Are there special regulations for newcomers to the profession?

Modul	Sachverhalt
	• Can you have another self-employed activity or dependent employment on the side? • When can you insure yourself as a student via the KSK? • Can you choose private health insurance? • When and how can you register with the KSK? Self-employed artists or journalists only have to pay half of their contributions themselves. A federal subsidy as well as the artists' social security contribution of the companies finance the other half of the contributions.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	You do not need to submit any documentation.
Voraussetzungen	You are not yet registered with the KSK as an artistically or journalistically self-employed person.
Kosten	There are no costs for you.
Verfahrensablauf	Contact the KSK: • Ask the KSK questions by phone or in writing or • request information on artists' social insurance by e-mail. • The KSK will inform you in writing, by telephone or by e-mail.
Bearbeitungsdauer	by telephone: usually none in writing or electronically: usually 1 to 5 days
Frist	You do not have to meet any deadlines.
