beekeeping and landscape conservation serving the goals of nature conservation and environmental protection.

- agricultural and forestry contractors
- livestock enterprises without land cultivation
- gardening and landscaping companies as well as garden maintenance companies
- Hunting enterprises
- Private park and garden maintenance companies

If you register your business with the locally responsible trade office, separate registration for accident insurance is usually not necessary. The business registration is automatically forwarded to the accident insurance. Under the law, entrepreneurs of agricultural, forestry and horticultural businesses are compulsorily insured with the LBG. Note: Only one accident insurance institution is responsible for your company, even if your company has components in different industries. The main focus of the company is decisive. There is no right of choice.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Initially, you do not have to submit any documents for the application. In individual cases, the SVLFG will request documents from you after registration.

Voraussetzungen

There is a reporting obligation in the case of:

- New establishment of a company
- Change in the form of business or activity

Kosten

There is no cost to you for reporting.

Verfahrensablauf

Registration with the SVLFG is automatic for companies subject to notification under the Trade Regulation Act. The trade office forwards the data from the trade notification digitally to the agricultural employers' liability insurance association.

- In addition, you can register online or in writing with the SVLFG.
- You will receive further information from the SVLFG by mail.
- If necessary, the SVLFG will ask for further information about your company so that the registration can take place.
