- parents
- grandparents
- parents of illegitimate children
- adoptive parents and
- great-grandparents, if applicable

However, people who are not family members may also be entitled to death benefits if they have paid for the funeral.

The amount of the death grant corresponds to

- for surviving dependents: one seventh of the so-called reference amount applicable at the time of death. This is calculated on the basis of the income of all persons insured under the statutory pension insurance scheme.
- for persons who do not belong to the family: the actual costs of the funeral and is at most as high as the death grant for survivors.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

As a person entitled to benefits, but who is not a survivor or surviving dependant:

- Proof of payment and amount of funeral expenses, for example, invoice.
