Sachverhalt

maintenance if the insured event had not occurred.
The pension is:

- for one parent, 20 percent,
- for a pair of parents 30 percent of the annual earnings (salary and other forms of earnings such as bonuses or holiday pay) of the deceased.

If you receive the parental pension as a parent couple and your wife or husband dies, you will not immediately receive the parental pension for one parent (20 percent). Instead, in this case, you will continue to receive the amount for one parent (30 percent) for 3 months.

Your own income is not counted towards the parental pension.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Proof of alimony, for example:

- Maintenance order from the court
- regular, earmarked transfers or receipts of money, for example rent payments
- contract concluded between the parties

Voraussetzungen

If your daughter or son dies as a result of an accident at work, a commuting accident or an occupational disease, you will receive a parental pension if the following conditions are met:

The deceased, at the time of death, from his or her wages or earned income:

- contributed substantially to your support; or
- Would have contributed substantially to your support in the future but for the insured event.

You are also entitled to a parent's pension if.

- The deceased had a reduction in earning capacity (MdE) of 50 percent or more as a result of these occupational diseases:
