Teaser

If you want to set up a business in Germany, you must comply with certain rules and requirements. This section provides information on the obligations concerning fairness and transparency.

Volltext

**Fairness and transparency in commercial practices****

When you set up a business, you should ensure fairness and transparency. **Unfair commercial practices** must be avoided, such as:

**Aggressive commercial practices****

- Creating the impression that consumers cannot leave the shop or sales area until a contract of sale is signed.
- Conducting personal visits to a consumers home and ignoring the consumers request to leave or not to return.

**Misleading practices****

- Incorrectly claiming to be a signatory to a **code of conduct.****
- Describing a product as free, free of charge, without charge or similar if the consumer has to pay some costs, other than costs that are unavoidable.

**Consumer rights of withdrawal****

Consumer rights of withdrawal are primarily governed by the German Civil Code) (BGB). In certain cases, consumers may withdraw from a contract they have concluded with a business (consumer contract) within a 14-day period without needing to give a reason.

Modern methods of selling goods and services involve the risk that consumers will be caught off guard when the contract is concluded. They may not be sufficiently informed of the content and meaning of the contract. Therefore, in the case of special forms of sale, i.e. consumer contracts concluded off-premises, also known as doorstep sales, and with distance contracts, consumers are generally entitled to a right of withdrawal pursuant to Section 312g BGB). The right of withdrawal applies to consumer contracts concerning performance in exchange for payment by the trader pursuant to Section 312(1) BGB). The right of withdrawal does not apply to the contracts referred to in Section 312(2) BGB), such as notarial contracts, contracts relating to land, construction contracts, passenger transport, medical treatment contracts, and minor agreements fulfilled immediately with a value not exceeding EUR 40.00.

**Unfair contract terms****

Under EU law, standard contract terms used by traders must be fair. If certain terms in a contract are unfair, they are not binding on the consumer and the trader cannot rely on them. More detailed information on unfair contract terms can be found

**Rules on the safety and protection of products sold to consumers****

Any products may be made available to others by economic operators, such as manufacturers, authorised representatives, importers or traders. In order to do so, they must be safe and comply with the relevant legal requirements when used for their intended purpose. EU law requires that certain products, such as machines, toys and electrical appliances, be labelled with the **CE mark**; this is also referred to as CE marking.

With this CE mark, manufacturers and their authorised representatives declare that the product has been manufactured in accordance with the applicable EU health and safety requirements. The CE mark must be:

- clearly visible
- legible
- permanently attached to the product

**Market surveillance** is an important task with regard to product safety. The purpose of this task is to ensure that the relevant requirements, such as those relating to the safe use of the product, are met by individual economic operators. The market surveillance authorities also carry out spot-checks of products and, in the event of deficiencies, approach the economic operators concerned.

- **Product liability** : if, despite all the safety precautions and checks, a product has been incorrectly placed on the market, you will be held responsible.
- **Product responsibility** : this is another important aspect. It means that you, as a manufacturer, are responsible for the entire life of a product, i.e. from the initial design to environmentally sound disposal. In Germany, the relevant EU Directives have been transposed into national law, such as through the Electrical Materials, Packaging, End-of-Life Vehicle and Waste Oil Ordinances (Elektrostoffverordnung, Verpackungsverordnung, Altfahrzeugverordnung and Altölverordnung), the Electrical and Electronic Equipment Act) (Elektro- und Elektronikgesetz) and the Batteries Act (Batteriegesetz).

**Fair consumer contracts**

On 1 March 2022, rules aiming to ensure fairer consumer contracts (Fair Consumer Contracts Act) \- Gesetz für faire Verbraucherverträge) were introduced. These rules ensure that:

- consumers can terminate **automatic contract renewals** significantly faster in the case of contracts for regular supplies of goods and services, such as streaming services and magazine subscriptions;
- a **mandatory cancellation button** was introduced to simplify cancellation processes. This button is complemented by the fact that the provider is required to confirm receipt of the cancellation request. The aim of such a confirmation is to communicate clearly to consumers that their cancellation request has been received.

**Energy supply contracts** discussed on the telephone must also be confirmed in writing, for example by letter, email or text message.
