Teaser	If you have not reached level B1 in the final test of your integration course, you can repeat the language course once under certain conditions for a maximum of 300 teaching units.
Volltext	Have you taken part in an integration course and not reached level B1 in the final "DTZ" test? Then you can repeat up to 300 hours of the language course once. In order to be allowed to repeat the lessons, you must have exhausted your individual quota of lessons and generally taken the final "DTZ" test. Your course provider will confirm your participation in writing. If you are learning German in a literacy course, you do not need to have taken the language test beforehand in order to be able to repeat the 300 hours. You must apply to the responsible office to repeat the 300 hours.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	When applying for the repetition of 300 lessons of a literacy course, you must submit • written confirmation from the course provider that you have completely used up your individual quota of hours or that you are currently in the 9th course section of a literacy course.
Voraussetzungen	You have completed all lessons and have not reached language level B1 CEFR in the final exam of the language course.
