Verfahrensablauf

You must apply for the change of your first name in writing to the name change authority. In municipalities with more than 7,500 inhabitants, the magistrate is responsible; in all other respects, the district committee is responsible.

- For minors, the legal representative submits the application.
- Explain in detail the reasons for your request. The authority must weigh up and decide, taking into account all the circumstances of the individual case. The public interest in retaining the name weighs all the more heavily the longer the name has been used.
- Your competent authority will collect an advance on fees and then carry out the necessary investigations. In the case of people over 14 years of age, it involves various agencies, such as the police. It obtains information from the list of debtors at the district court

- the registration office,
- the registry office that keeps the birth register,
