Teaser	As the operator of a care facility, you can calculate investment costs necessary for operations separately. If you have not received any funding, you only need to state the planned amount of these costs.
Volltext	As the operator of a care facility, you can charge investment costs necessary for operations (e.g. rental or loan costs for buildings, costs for durable goods) separately, as these may not be included in the costs for care remuneration, accommodation or meals. You must inform the competent state authority of the amount of these planned costs (also before any changes). This procedure only applies if you have not received funding for investment costs under state law - otherwise, please use the application form for subsidized facilities, which can be found on the website of the RP Gießen, for example During the application process, you also have the option of specifying different cost rates (e.g. for social welfare recipients and self-payers). As the responsible body, you can also submit the application for several facilities. You do not need to include more precise calculation bases.
