Teaser	If you hold a residence permit to participate in a European Voluntary Service for a period of less than one year and wish to continue your voluntary service, you can apply for an extension of your residence permit.
Volltext	As a participant in the European Voluntary Service, you have been issued a residence permit. If the host institution agrees with you in writing to extend the service, your residence permit can also be extended.

Modul

Sachverhalt

The prerequisite is that the maximum period of issue of the residence permit of one year has not yet been exhausted.

If you have not yet reached the age of 18, you also need the consent of your legal guardian for the extension.

In addition to participation in voluntary service, additional employment is not permitted.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Recognized and valid identity document (for example, passport or passport substitute)
 - Initial agreement with the host entity for the implementation of the European Voluntary Service (including job description, details of the duration of the voluntary service, working hours, working conditions, supervision, remuneration and any training included) and written agreement on the extension of the service
 - Proof of health insurance coverage
 - Before the age of 18: consent of the legal guardians

In individual cases, the Foreigners' Registration Office may request further documents.

Voraussetzungen

- You have a recognized and valid identity document (for example, passport or passport substitute)
 - They are already doing a European Voluntary Service, the duration of which was originally agreed to be less than one year.
 - You have agreed with the host institution to extend your service for a maximum total period of one year.
 - There is no statutory ground for refusal (for example, you should not be one of those beneficiaries of international protection in Germany, who have applied for international protection, whose deportation is temporarily suspended or who has been granted temporary protection; nor should the host institution have been established for the sole purpose of facilitating the entry and residence of foreigners).
 - You have sufficient health insurance coverage.
 - There is no interest in expulsion against you.
 - Your stay does not endanger or impair the interests
