Kosten	Depending on the scope of the desired courses, the universities charge guest auditor fees of 50 to 500 euros for each semester. Please inquire via the website of your desired university about the respective amounts, the number of possible semester hours per week, the payment deadlines and method of payment.
Verfahrensablauf	Each university makes an application for guest auditorship available on its website. The completed application must be submitted to the respective university in due time and the guest auditor's fee must be paid. You can find out which courses are offered at a university via the course catalogue of your desired university on its website. Some universities offer separate directories for guest auditors. Whether guest auditorship is possible for a particular course and how many semester hours per week may be attended is decided either by the course director or the respective department. Prior consent or release must be obtained from them. The university will inform you about how you can obtain this consent and when and how the amount for the guest auditorship is to be paid. After the application has been received by the responsible university office and the payment of the fees due has been demonstrably made, the application will be examined and a decision will be made as to whether a guest auditorship can be granted. With the approved application for guest auditorship, the right to participate in the desired courses arises.
Bearbeitungsdauer	There is no statutory processing deadline for applications for guest auditorship. The processing

Hinweise	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • As a guest auditor, you do not have the status of a student. • You are also not entitled to a student ticket to use public transport. • As a rule, guest auditors are not entitled to take examinations. Examinations can only be completed by guest auditors in exceptional cases. Information on this is available from the respective universities. • As a guest auditor, you are not entitled to the use of university offers such as library, university sports and so on.
Rechtsbehelf	Since guest auditors can only be admitted by the university within the framework of the existing study options, there is no rejection notice and therefore no legal remedy instruction. If the capacity of a desired course has already been exhausted due to the occupancy of regular students, participation as a guest auditor cannot be guaranteed.
