Volltext	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Money laundering is used to smuggle illegally obtained assets into the legal economy and prevent them from being accessed by law enforcement authorities. • If you have information about potential or actual violations of the Money Laundering Act (such as tax evasion), you can report this completely anonymously to the responsible supervisory authority. Your tip-off can contribute to the prevention of money laundering or terrorist financing. • However, you must note that reporting via the anonymous whistleblower system is not the same as reporting a reportable suspicious case to the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) in accordance with the reporting obligation and authorization in the Money Laundering Act. In this case, you must report your suspected case to the FIU. When submitting a report, you are not obliged to provide personal details. The report can also be made anonymously.
