Volltext	If the current management stops or changes, you must report this to the Chamber of Skilled Crafts. A new manager must then be appointed immediately. The management can be carried out by the owner of the business or an employed person who has the necessary technical qualifications. The necessary proof of qualification for the professional and technical management of the business can be provided either by a master craftsman's certificate for the craft to be practiced or a related craft or by an equivalent domestic or foreign professional qualification or an exemption permit or authorization to practice. The tasks of the management include, among other things <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to control, supervise and monitor the technical work process and not to limit themselves to merely checking the work results, • directing employees and giving the necessary instructions, • to prevent and, if necessary, correct deficiencies in the execution of the work, • to ensure that there are no violations of legal regulations or operating instructions, • regularly visit the individual work sites to monitor the execution of the work, • be available at all times during working hours and be
