- Initial equipment for clothing (e.g. after a fire or flood) and initial equipment for pregnancy and childbirth (e.g. first-time equipment (without prams) and maternity clothing), esp. in case of total loss or new need due to extraordinary circumstances (e.g. blatant weight loss) and

If you do not live alone, the social welfare office will take into account the entire income of the members of the community in order to determine your need for help. For this purpose, the income of all household members living together in a dwelling can be taken into account (if they work together). These include, for example:

- earned income,
- alimony and
- Pension income.

The child benefit paid for minors, as well as any maintenance payments for a child, are to be attributed to that child in order to cover his or her needs.

Certain assets are considered to be protected assets that are not to be taken into account, for example:

- Smaller cash amounts (financial assets per adult: EUR 5,000, per child: EUR 500) or
- a reasonable house plot.

These are not taken into account when calculating the benefits. With a few exceptions, you will not receive any benefits for past periods.

Verfahrensablauf

One-off needs according to § 31 para. 1 SGB XII can be applied for at the Social Welfare Office. They can also be granted without an application if the social assistance institution (e.g. district or independent city) or the bodies commissioned by it learn that a person is in need and that the conditions for granting subsistence assistance are met. If you receive basic income support in old age and in the event of reduced earning capacity, it is mandatory to apply for the one-off needs separately.

You can announce or apply for the need for one-off requirements online via the social platform.
