Teaser	If you would like to work as a farrier's apprentice, you will need state recognition. You can find out more here.
Volltext	In the Federal Republic of Germany, the shoeing of hooves and claws is an activity that requires state recognition as a certified farrier. This means that animal welfare concerns are also taken into account. The quality of the farrier's work has a direct influence on the health of hoofed and cloven-hoofed animals. Specialist training at farriery schools may only be carried out by certified and state-approved farriery instructors. Examination certificates in the field of farriery and horseshoeing obtained outside of Germany can be treated equally in accordance with the Farriery Recognition Ordinance. This ordinance also regulates
