Teaser	If you have suffered damage to your health as a result of certain events and have been treated in a trauma outpatient clinic, you can receive reimbursement of your travel costs. The damage to your health may be the result of an act of violence, war or a vaccination.
Volltext	Trauma outpatient clinics offer victims of physical, psychological and sexual violence quick, early and unbureaucratic counseling and psychological help to help them cope with the consequences of the crime. In the case of treatment in a trauma outpatient clinic, the necessary travel costs to the nearest trauma outpatient clinic can be covered. The same applies to the necessary travel costs for a necessary accompanying person and for children whose transportation is necessary because their care is not guaranteed. The travel costs are based on the amount payable for transportation in the lowest class of the most appropriate means of public transport. In the case of transportation by another means of transport, an amount equal to the distance allowance is taken as a basis. Please note that your social compensation provider will information on the benefits granted as well as other necessary evidence.

You can apply for social compensation benefits online or in writing.

- If necessary, you can make an appointment with your contact person at the pension authority or at your responsible office.
- We will then discuss with you whether you are entitled to social compensation benefits and what support services can be offered.
- If necessary, the case management team can discuss the further procedure and possible entitlements to benefits with you that go beyond the general duty to provide information and advice.
- If you are entitled to social compensation benefits, your contact person will discuss the next steps with you.
- The contact person will provide you with the relevant documents. If necessary, complete the documents, enclose the required evidence or supporting documents and send the documents back to your contact person.
- Your claims will be determined ex officio on the basis of the documents. The authority will inform you of the result. The authority will inform you of the result in the form of a decision, which is usually sent to you by letter.
- If entitlements to benefits have been determined, you will receive an approval notice. If no entitlements are determined, you will receive a rejection notice.
- However, you also have the option of submitting the application online. To do this, you must complete the online application and upload the necessary supporting documents
