Teaser	If your rear license plate is partially or completely covered by a load carrier or load you are carrying, you must affix a repeat license plate.
Volltext	If the rear license plate of your vehicle is partially or completely covered by a load carrier or load you are carrying (e.g. bicycle carrier), the license plate must be repeated on the vehicle or load carrier. It is not necessary to stamp the third license plate. Attachments as interchangeable accessories for motor vehicles and trailers do not need to carry license plates. If the vehicle's license plates are obscured, it is recommended that repeat license plates be affixed. The same applies to attached agricultural and forestry implements.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	As processing by a licensing authority is not necessary, the submission of documents is not required.
Voraussetzungen	If the license plates of the towing vehicle are obscured by a load carrier or load being carried, the license plate must be repeated on the vehicle or load carrier. If the license plates of the towing vehicle are obscured by attachments or implements, it is recommended that repeating license plates be affixed.
