Volltext	Since 01.10.2002, proof of preventive fire protection for buildings of building class 5 must be certified by an expert for fire protection in accordance with § 68 of the Hessian Building Code (HBO). The same applies to proof of preventive fire protection for buildings of building class 4, if they are not created by a person entitled to provide evidence. In the case of special constructions, the involvement of a fire protection test expert by the building supervisory authority may be considered. For the activity as a test expert for fire protection, recognition by the Chamber of Architects and Urban Planners of Hesse is required.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	A formal written application in paper form must be submitted to the Chamber of Architects and Urban Planners of Hesse (application for recognition as an expert for fire protection in accordance with §§ 16 ff. of the Hessian Ordinance on Authorized Inspection and Inspection Experts). Proof of a relevant university degree as well as documents proving 5 years of job-specific experience must be provided. If an entry in a comparable list from another country of the Federal Republic, another member state of the EU
