Teaser	If you want to run an income tax assistance association, then you need recognition. You can find information about this here.
Volltext	Lohnsteuerhilfvereine are self-help institutions of employees to provide assistance in tax matters within the scope of the authority according to § 4 No. 11 Tax Consultancy Act (StBerG) for their members. This power is limited and extends, for example, to members with income from employment, with income from maintenance payments and only to assistance with income tax and their surcharge taxes. Members who have become unemployed may continue to receive advice.

Assistance in tax matters may only be provided by persons who belong to a counselling centre. A director must be appointed for each counselling centre. The Lohnsteuerhilfverein must maintain at least one counselling centre in the district of the supervisory authority in which it has its registered office.

Income tax assistance associations require recognition for their activities. This will only take place upon request and upon presentation of the required documents.
