Teaser	Funding under the state program WIR "Diversity and Participation"
Volltext	The main funding priorities of the state program "WIR - Diversity and Participation" are: 1. funding for WIR diversity centers: In order to further strengthen and expand the partnership between the state and municipalities in integration policy, the existing municipal WIR coordination staff and WIR case management for refugees will be further developed into WIR diversity centers. Since 2022, a WIR employee position and micro-projects have also been funded. The 33 districts, independent districts and special status cities are eligible to apply. 2. promotion of non-profit migrant organizations: Funding for micro-projects as part of the activities of migrant organizations, strengthening the association structure by hiring a mini-job employee and building networks with established municipal players. All non-profit migrant organizations as well as municipalities in cooperation with them are eligible to apply. 3. funding for projects on the culture of welcome and recognition and intercultural openness as well as funding for projects with new innovative approaches. All municipalities, public, church and independent organizations as well as non-profit migrant organizations are eligible to apply. 4. funding for the qualification and deployment of volunteer integration guides: funding for the qualification and deployment of integration guides; now also in relation to work with refugees. All municipalities, public, church and independent organizations as well as non-profit migrant organizations are eligible to apply. 5. support for volunteer lay interpreters: Since 2018, appropriately trained volunteer lay interpreters with basic interpreting skills have been supported by associations and municipalities with lay interpreter pools in Hesse. The aim is to provide language support for people with a refugee background in particular at appointments with authorities or in social institutions. 6. provision of funding for the conceptual development of diversity and integration strategies in Hessian municipalities with a population of 10,000 to 50,000 people.
