Sachverhalt

for the trade in weapons and ammunition, you need not only theoretical but also practical knowledge. Therefore, extensive preparation is recommended.

If you have applied for a permit to trade ammunition, the treatment of the common ammunition and its use in the associated firearm will be examined.

As a gunsmith registered in the register of craftsmen, you already have the expertise and do not have to prove it again by an examination at the IHK.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Where applicable, notification from the competent authority responsible for the trading licence that the inspection is to be carried out
- Official photo ID for identification during the examination

Voraussetzungen

As a rule, the authority to which you applied for the arms trading permit must register or pre-register you for the examination.

Kosten

You can obtain the fees from the Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK), where you take the examination. They result from the scale of fees of the competent Land authority.

Verfahrensablauf

Normally, you apply for the permit to trade arms and are then reported for examination via the competent licensing authority. You can or must register yourself with some chambers of commerce and industry.

- As a rule, you will receive notification from the authority responsible for the trading permit that the examination is to be carried out.
- Your registration will be confirmed by the IHK and you will receive an invitation to the exam date.
- You take the examination on site at the IHK.
- You will receive the certificate of successfully passed the specialist examination by the IHK.

With proof of expertise, you can continue the licensing procedure for the arms trade.

Bearbeitungsdauer

- Specialist examinations take place irregularly, so the duration between notification of the authority and
