| Teaser                        | Under what circumstances is the residence permit extended?  |
| Volltext                      | Residence permits are issued for a limited period of time. An extension is possible if the prerequisites that must have been met when the permit was first issued continue to be met. There will be no extension if the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees has informed you that the prerequisites for the revocation of refugee recognition have been met. Furthermore, your residence title will not be extended if you have been expelled due to a particularly serious reason for expulsion. You must take urgent care to submit an application for the extension or issuance of another residence title |
