Modul

Sachverhalt

In individual cases, the Immigration Office may require fewer or more documents.

Voraussetzungen

In principle, the same requirements must be met for the extension of the residence permit as for the initial issue of the residence permit. This means that

- Both custodial parents are third-country nationals, i.e. they are citizens of a country outside the EU, the EEA or Switzerland.
- The child is a minor and is in possession of a residence permit in accordance with Section 33 of the Residence Act due to being born in Germany.
- At least one parent with custody is in possession of a valid residence permit, settlement permit or EU permanent residence permit.
- At least one parent with custody rights lives with the child in a family relationship in Germany.

Kosten

48.00 euros for a further stay of up to three months.
46.50 euros for a further stay of more than three months. Remark: Additional fees may apply for the issue of the new residence permit in the form of the electronic residence permit (eAT card), which can also be used as electronic proof of identity. Lower fees may apply for Turkish nationals.

Verfahrensablauf

- You submit an application for an extension of the residence permit of your child born in Germany to the immigration authority in good time before the expiry of the current residence permit.
- Find out whether the responsible immigration office allows you to apply online or has a special application form.
- If the application can only be submitted in person, make an appointment at the immigration office. If you apply online, the Foreigners' Registration Office will contact you after receiving your application to arrange an appointment.
- During the appointment, your identity and the identity of your child as well as your documents will be checked (please bring all documents, if possible in the original, to the appointment).
