Valid fishing licenses from other federal states are recognized in North Rhine-Westphalia; a transfer is not required. The same applies to fishing examination certificates if the holder was not registered in North Rhine-Westphalia at the time of the examination.

Carrying a fishing license is also mandatory when fishing at commercial fishing ponds (e.g. "Forellensee").

In addition to the fishing license, a fishing permit from the holder of the fishing rights to the respective body of water is also required (e.g. fishing cooperative, water owner, fishing rights leaseholder). The fishing permit can often also be purchased in nearby fishing stores and online.
