Sachverhalt

- You pay the fee directly at the registry office when you apply.

In addition to yourself, a person you trust may also order and collect the certificate on your behalf. In addition to a written power of attorney, they must present your identity card or passport (original or certified copy) and their own identity card or passport.

Application by post:

The written application is made as follows:

- Address an informal letter to the relevant registry office asking them to issue you with a marriage certificate.
- Your letter should contain the following information: Surname, first name Date and place of marriage if known: Registry office and notarization number
- Enclose a certified copy of your identity card or passport with the letter.
- You will then receive a notification of fees.
- Once you have provided proof of payment of the fees (e.g. by sending another email with a copy of your bank statement), the marriage certificate will be sent to you immediately by post.

Online application:

You can also apply for the certificate online.
