Volltext	If you have established a civil partnership abroad (within the meaning of the Civil Partnership Act), you can apply to the registry office in your home town for this to be subsequently recorded in the German civil partnership register. As a rule, properly issued civil partnership certificates from abroad are recognised in Germany. There is no obligation to subsequently certify them. However, the subsequent entry in the register of civil partnerships can be advantageous because the local registry office can then issue you with a German civil partnership certificate. Any translations and certifications of the foreign certificate will therefore no longer be necessary in future.
