branches, subsidiaries and group companies in Germany and abroad. He/she is authorized to issue instructions for their implementation.

As part of his/her duties, the Group Money Laundering Officer must keep himself/herself continuously informed about compliance with money laundering obligations at the branches, subsidiaries and group companies in Austria and abroad. Furthermore, he/she must ensure at regular intervals - also through on-site visits - in particular that the obligations under money laundering law are being complied with and that the necessary measures are being taken and effectively implemented. If necessary, he/she must also take cross-company measures.

The parent company must ensure that the group money laundering officer or employees appointed by him/her are authorized to obtain audit reports, if available, in relation to all group branches, subsidiaries and group companies in Germany and abroad. This authority also includes the unrestricted right to carry out spot checks as part of the aforementioned tasks. The parent company must also ensure that the Group Money Laundering Officer, the employees appointed by him/her and the Group Internal Audit department have group-wide access to all information, documents and files relevant to the fulfillment of money laundering obligations, in particular regarding all customers, beneficial owners and all business relationships and transactions within or outside such business relationships.

The Group Money Laundering Officer must take precautions to protect personal data.
