Teaser	As a homeless foreigner, you have the opportunity to be naturalized under simplified conditions and reduced fees.
Volltext	Naturalization gives you German citizenship and makes you an equal citizen of the Federal Republic of Germany with all rights and obligations. Among other things, you can exercise your right to vote in the federal states and in the Bundestag, enjoy freedom of movement in the European Union as a citizen of the Union and can also travel to many countries outside Europe without a visa. As a homeless foreigner, you are entitled to naturalization if you have been legally resident in Germany for at least seven years and have not been convicted of a criminal offence (with the exception of convictions for fines or juvenile or prison sentences of up to one year, the execution of which has been suspended on probation). The requirements to be fulfilled by you are less extensive compared to the naturalization options under the Citizenship Act. The administrative effort and the fee incurred are also lower than for the legal basis of the Citizenship Act. You also have the option of naturalizing your spouse and underage children, even if they have not lived in Germany as long as you have. Naturalization becomes effective when you receive your naturalization certificate.
