Teaser	If you have suffered damage to your health as a result of certain events and have been treated in a trauma outpatient clinic, you can receive reimbursement of your care costs. The damage to your health may be the result of an act of violence. You can find out more about this here.
Volltext	Trauma outpatient clinics offer victims of physical, psychological and sexual violence in particular quick, early and unbureaucratic advice and psychological help to help them cope with the consequences of the crime. In the case of treatment in a trauma outpatient clinic, the necessary care costs for family members who need care or support can be covered. The need for an accompanying person is particularly given in the case of a person who is in possession of a valid severely disabled person's pass with the mark H (helplessness), aG (exceptional walking disability) or BI (blindness). This is also the case if a mental illness requires assistance. Care costs are necessary for children or family members who require care or assistance and whose care or assistance cannot be provided in any other way (e.g. by other family members). Please note that your regional association (LVR or LWL) will decide whether and to what extent you will receive support. outpatient clinic. The regional association in whose district you have your place of residence or habitual abode is responsible. You will receive an approval of the decision and, if applicable, information about the benefits granted as well as other necessary evidence.

You can apply for social compensation benefits online or in writing.

- If necessary, you can make an appointment with your contact person at the Landschaftsverband Rheinland (Social Compensation Department Tel: 0221 809 5401; e-mail: SER@lvr.de) or Landschaftsverband Westfalen Lippe (Office for Social Compensation Law Tel: 0251 591 01; e-mail: SER@lwl.org).
- We will then discuss with you whether you are entitled to social compensation benefits and what support services can be offered.
- If necessary, the case management can discuss the further procedure and possible benefit claims with you, which go beyond the general duty to provide information and advice.
- If you are entitled to social compensation benefits, your contact person will discuss the next steps with you.
- The contact person will provide you with the relevant documents. If necessary, complete the documents, enclose the required evidence or supporting documents and send the documents back to the Landschaftsverband responsible for your application.
- Your entitlement will be determined ex officio on the basis of the documents. The authority will inform you of the result in the form of a decision, which is usually sent to you by letter.
- If entitlements to benefits have been determined, you will receive an approval notice. If no entitlements are determined, you will receive a rejection notice.
- However, you also have the option of submitting the application online. To do this, you must complete the online application and upload the necessary supporting documents.
