Verfahrensablauf

You must apply for the extension of your driving license at the driving license office in your place of residence. You can apply for an extension at the earliest six months before you reach the minimum age required for the relevant driving license category. After the application has been submitted, the competent driving license authority will check whether there are any objections to the extension of your driving license (category). As soon as the driving license authority has completed its examination, the driving license authority will send your driving license to the TÜV and issue the inspection order. The TÜV will then notify your driving school of the receipt of your papers. Now nothing stands in the way of your test.
