person in question that extended information from the population register has been obtained. With regard to the fulfillment of information obligations under Article 14 of the General Data Protection Regulation in connection with the processing of personal data on the basis of the information from the population register, please note the requirements of Section 45 (2) of the Federal Registration Act.

It is necessary to provide sufficient information about the person you are looking for so that they can be clearly identified and confusion is ruled out. These are

- family name
- Former names
- first names
- date of birth
- gender or
- an address.

If identification is not possible on the basis of the information provided, no information will be provided.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

You must identify yourself.

You can identify yourself with:

- your identity card or
- your passport

In addition, you must always enclose proof(s) to substantiate a legitimate interest and the corresponding purpose.

Voraussetzungen

The following requirements must be met:

- You must be able to credibly demonstrate a legitimate interest in the provision of information.
- The term "legitimate interest" here includes any interest of a legal, economic or non-material nature that is to be recognized as worthy of protection. A legal interest exists, for example, if the data is required for legal prosecution (e.g. assertion or enforcement of legal claims) or for legal defense.
- The person you are looking for is clearly identified by

Hinweise	The fees are charged regardless of the success of the search. The municipal register of residents only contains data on natural persons. Information on companies or commercial enterprises can be obtained from the trade register. If you would like to obtain information about a person from the population register but cannot prove a legitimate interest, you can apply for a simple population register information request. This contains less information about the person you are looking for.
