Volltext	If you are both an obliged entity and the parent company of a group in accordance with the German Money Laundering Act (GwG), you are obliged to appoint a group money laundering officer and a deputy. The supervisory authority must be notified in advance of the appointment and dismissal of the group anti-money laundering officer and his deputy. The anti-money laundering officer is responsible for drawing up a uniform group-wide strategy for the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing and for coordinating and monitoring its implementation. The Group Money Laundering Officer does not replace any money laundering officers that may be required at the companies belonging to the group, but performs an additional function.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proof of appointment as a group money laundering officer or <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proof that the applicant is a member of the company's management (e.g. extract from the commercial register or shareholders' agreement) • The supervisory authority reserves the right to request information on the qualifications of the group money laundering officer (e.g. overview of professional career, proof of participation in money laundering training events, etc.) and his/her reliability (e.g. in the

Frist	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The notification of the group money laundering officer and/or deputy must be made prior to the appointment. There is no deadline, i.e. the notification can also be made at very short notice. The notification is intended to give the authority the opportunity to check the qualifications and reliability of the newly appointed group money laundering officer and/or deputy and, if necessary, to object to the appointment in a timely manner. • The supervisory authority must also be notified in advance of the dismissal ("disengagement") of the group anti-money laundering officer and/or deputy
