Volltext	When you move into an apartment, you must register with the registration office. If you are under the age of 16, you must register with the person whose home you are moving into. Newborns born in Germany only need to be registered if they move into a home other than that of their parents or mother. If you are of legal age and a guardian or caretaker has been appointed for you who can determine your residence, this person is responsible for registration. If you have several residences in Germany, one of these residences is your main residence. The main residence is <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• if you are married or in a civil partnership: the home primarily used by the family or civil partnership. This also applies if you are only temporarily separated from your family or partner.</li> <li>• if you are married or in a civil partnership and live apart permanently: Your predominantly used home.</li> <li>• if you are a minor: the home mainly used by your parents or foster parents. If they live separately, the main residence is the home in which you mainly live.</li> <li>• Only if the predominantly used home cannot be determined beyond doubt should the focus of the living relationships be taken into account. Indications for this are, for example, the type of home, personal ties, social and local political activities as well as membership in clubs and other organizations.</li> </ul>

Sachverhalt

Each time you register, you must inform the registration authority whether you have any other homes in Germany and, if so, which of these homes is your main home.

When registering with the registration authority, you must submit written confirmation from your landlord or a person authorized by him/her (landlord confirmation). Your landlord or a person authorized by him/her can also confirm your move-in directly to the registration authority.

The confirmation from the landlord must contain the following data:

1. Name and address of the landlord and, if the landlord is not the owner, also the name of the owner,
2. date of moving in,
3. address of the apartment and
4. Names of the persons required to register in accordance with § 17 Paragraph 1 of the Federal Registration Act (BMG).

To register, you must complete and sign a registration form.

You will receive written or electronic confirmation of your registration free of charge (official registration confirmation).

If, for certain reasons, you do not want your personal data to be passed on, in some cases you have the option of objecting to it being passed on. If the relevant requirements are met, it may also be possible to apply for a block on the disclosure and transmission of information.
