Germany will be withdrawn again.

If other reasons arise why you are no longer allowed to practise as a lawyer, you are obliged to inform the competent Bar Association of these reasons.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Application for admission

You must submit a completed and signed application for admission. Depending on the competent bar association, you may have to submit further documents with the application for admission, such as a curriculum vitae, a questionnaire, a personal data sheet or a data protection information.

- Proof of nationality

You must submit proof of citizenship (certified copy of a valid identity document).

- Proof of a certificate from your country of origin

You must submit a certificate from the competent authority in your home State attesting to the European lawyer's affiliation to the profession. The certificate must not be older than three months at the time of its submission. You must resubmit the certificate to the competent bar association every 3 years after your possible admission.

- Proof of previous convictions

You must submit a certificate from the competent authority in your country of origin stating that you are not aware of any serious professional misconduct, criminal offences or other circumstances which might call into question your suitability to practise as a lawyer.

- Proof of birth certificate

You must submit your birth certificate. If you have had a name change since birth, you must also submit documentary evidence of the name change (marriage certificate/extract from the family register).

- Proof of academic degree

If you hold an academic degree, you must submit proof of this.

- Proof of professional liability insurance

You must submit proof that you have taken out professional liability insurance in accordance with Section 51 of the Federal Lawyers' Act (BRAO) or submit a provisional confirmation of cover. An insurance policy in your country of origin meets the legal requirements if it is equivalent to an insurance policy pursuant to Section 51 BRAO with regard to the conditions and scope of coverage. If you have foreign insurance cover, you must submit a certificate from the insurer stating the terms of insurance and scope of cover every year after possible admission.

- Proof of payment of fees

You must submit proof that you have paid the applicable fees. The fee is due upon submission of the application to the Board.
