Teaser	If you want to sell goods outside of your store, you'll need a travel trade card.
Volltext	You operate a travel business if you commercially offer goods for sale without a prior order (appointment) and operate outside your commercial establishment or without having one. The same applies if you visit (distribute) orders for goods or purchase goods, offer services or visit orders for services or carry out entertaining activities as a showman or according to the type of showman. However, there are also activities that can be assigned to the travel industry, but for which a permit requirement is omitted. You do not need a travel trade card in the following cases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They occasionally offer goods for sale at trade fairs, exhibitions, public festivals or on special occasions with the permission of the competent authority; • They distribute self-obtained products from agriculture, forestry, vegetable, fruit and horticulture, poultry farming and beekeeping, as well as hunting and fishing; • You carry out one of the activities referred to in Paragraph 55(1)(1) of the Industrial Code in your commune of residence or in the municipality of your commercial establishment, provided that the municipality does not have more than 10 000 inhabitants; • They dispense milk on the basis of a permit pursuant to § 4 of the Milk and Margarine Act or, in the case of
