- guarantees that it organises broadcasting in compliance with the statutory provisions and the administrative acts adopted on that basis.

Admission may not be granted to legal persons under public law, with the exception of churches and universities, to their legal representatives and senior officials, as well as to political parties and voters' associations. The same applies to companies affiliated with the aforementioned under stock corporation law.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

An application containing the type of broadcasting and the category of programme, the duration of the programme, the transmission technology, the intended distribution area and the form of financing, a programme scheme and a financing plan are required.

In addition, a police certificate of good conduct is required for private individuals. Companies must also submit police clearance certificates for their statutory or legal representatives as well as a articles of association.

Voraussetzungen
Kosten

The costs depend on the type and scope of the broadcasting event (100,000.00 euros for nationwide television broadcasters).

Fees are determined on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the MSA's Fee Schedule.

Verfahrensablauf
Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist

There are no deadlines to be observed. In principle, an application can be submitted at any time, provided that there is no MSA tender procedure with a cut-off period.
