Verfahrensablauf

Training to become a driving instructor can only take place in one of the approx. 56 recognized driving instructor training centers nationwide. Not only is theoretical training required, but also practical training in a driving school.

The training is a "graduated training". In the basic level, the driving instructor license for category BE is acquired first. A two-stage application procedure is required for this. Based on this, driving instructor licenses for categories A, CE and DE can be acquired.

In order to obtain a driving instructor license, a candidate license must first be applied for.

- In order for the candidate driving instructor to be able to apply the knowledge he has just acquired at the officially recognized training centre, he is granted a "candidate licence" with limited training rights if he has previously successfully passed the practical driving test and the specialist knowledge test.
- The "Anwärterbefugnis" expires either when the driving instructor license is issued or after three unsuccessful driving tests in theoretical or practical driving lessons or after 2 years from the date of issue.

Bearbeitungsdauer

4 - 6 Woche(n)

Frist

The duration of driving instructor training is • five and a half months in a driving instructor training center and four and a half months in a training driving school for applicants for a category BE driving instructor license • for applicants for a category A driving instructor license, an additional month in a driving instructor training school • for applicants for a category CE or DE driving instructor license, an additional two months in a driving instructor training school (If the applicant for
