Teaser	Does your child have a mental disability or is at risk of one? Is his or her participation in society therefore restricted? Then integration assistance can help.
Volltext	Some children and young people cannot participate equally in public life because of their disability. Integration assistance supports children and young people with disabilities so that they can lead a self-determined life. This integration assistance is aimed at children and young people with a mental disability or a threatened mental disability. Integration assistance is divided into 4 groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Services for medical rehabilitation</li> <li>• Services for participation in working life</li> <li>• Services for participation in education and</li> <li>• Services for social participation</li> </ul> Integration aids can look like this <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• in outpatient form, outside of inpatient facilities, for example, a school companion</li> </ul>

Modul

Sachverhalt

- in day care facilities for children or in other semi-inpatient facilities
- in day and night facilities and other forms of residential care
- placement in full-time care (with suitable persons; according to § 35a Para. 2 No. 3 SGB VIII)

A mental disability can be, for example, an anxiety disorder depression, psychosis, autism, ADHD or an eating disorder.

In addition to mental disabilities, there are also physical and mental disabilities. There may also be integration aids for these. Other agencies may be responsible for this. Ask your youth welfare office which agency is responsible for you.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Voraussetzungen

- Young people are eligible. They can apply from the age of 15.
- Before the age of 15, their legal representatives apply on their behalf.
- Your child has a mental disability or is at risk of having one. The condition is likely to last longer than 6 months.
- Your child's participation in social life is impaired.

Kosten

Integration aids in outpatient form are free of charge. Outpatient services include, for example, assistance at school. In the case of partial or full inpatient integration assistance in day care facilities, with caregivers or in day and night facilities, you must contribute to an appropriate extent. Please ask the responsible youth welfare office.

Verfahrensablauf

- Contact the responsible office.
- In a personal conversation, you will be shown possible assistance. This can be supplementary or in combination with help for upbringing or help from other rehabilitation providers.
- Integration assistance can only be granted if a suitable doctor certifies a mental or threatening mental handicap.
- All parties involved (you, your child, the staff of the independent organization and the Youth Welfare
